Book Summary

Blueberries for Sal was awarded the Caldecott Honor in 1949. The story features a little girl, Sal, and her mother as they go and pick blueberries for winter—and a bear cub and his mother as they go and eat berries for winter from the other side of the same hill.

Discussion Prompts

- 1) How did Little Bear and Sal, and Sal's Mother and Little Bear's mother behave in the same way?
- 2) Have you ever gone picking berries or fruit?
- 3) Where does all the fruit in the supermarket come from? Who grows them and who picks those? Do they enjoy it?
- 4) Where does all our food come from?
